myself, because there are some state employees who might quit before they get the benefits you know are entitled to them, and I don't know what becomes of the share that the state has paid in for those employees. But at any rate, that part that the state has paid in is certainly not going to go toward paying any benefit to those employees who have quit. So some of that money that was put into the program which will not be paid out should be available to defray the cost of what I am talking about here. But I haven't been able to verify those figures.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Well, that is the first year cost which evidently is meant to fatten the pot because of the anticipated end result.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR PIRSCH: But the next year is $156,000. Now is that going to be the continuing higher amount?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That amount could be based on how many females or males work for the state, I presume.

SENATOR PIRSCH: So it could go down depending on if it experiences the...(interruption).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, that could alter, uh huh.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay, thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, does the Chair have your permission to suspend debate on this bill for the purpose of the Chief Justice?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Sure.

PRESIDENT: Because there are a number of lights for discussion on the matter. Thank you. The Chair now appoints a special committee to escort Chief Justice Krivosha to the Chamber. In order to do this in parliamentary procedure correctly, the Chair will entertain a motion to appoint a committee to escort the Chief Justice. Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I move that the President of the Legislature appoint a committee to usher Chief Justice Krivosha to the podium.

PRESIDENT: The Chair appoints the following special committee to escort the Chief Justice into the Chamber: Chairman,
